

Artisan Trail in the # Pennsylvania Wilds

In the Pennsylvania Wilds, we value authenticity—the company of unpretentious people, the enduring quality of nature, and the timeless appeal of handmade goods. Our towns and villages attract artists and artisans who appreciate our values and contribute to our regional identity by creating beautiful and functional items you won’t find anywhere else.

Where can you find them? That’s easy! Many towns in the Pennsylvania Wilds sport a unique collection of craft barns, boutiques, galleries, studios, and performance arts spaces. You won’t find everything everywhere, but keep your eyes open and you’ll definitely see enough to keep you busy. And if you do your homework before you set out, you can put together an exhaustive itinerary of artist and artisan venues. It all depends on what you’re looking for.
